

Ann King

Ann is a life-long dog owner and has worked with dogs in rescues and shelters for almost 30 years. Ann, formerly a corporate communications and marketing professional, left her 'real job' to pursue her passion of all things dog to start Compliant K9 in 2006. Along with receiving her training certification from Animal Behavior College, and Canine Behavior Consultant Certification from the Certification Council for Professional Dog Trainers, Ann regularly attends workshops and seminars given by the industry's most respected and leading-edge dog behavior professionals. In addition to training paying clients, Ann volunteers her services to Foothill Dog Rescue and El Dorado County Animal Services helping fosters, volunteers and adopters give dogs the best chance possible at finding and staying in their 'forever home'. Ann offers discounted rates to rescued dogs, senior citizens and veterans. Visit www.CompliantK9.com for more information.